

Klaudeen Hansen, Featured Instructor, Sun Prairie, WI

Klaudeen's experience reaches far beyond just quilting. Not only is she a certified judge for the National Quilting Association and has judged competition quilts for a number of years, but Klaudeen also trains other people to be judges. Klaudeen is an editor for both AQS's Quilt Art and Addresses & Birthday Book, as well as the author of many articles for various quilting magazines. Klaudeen is the author and creative mind behind AQS's annual quilt calendar. Her quilts have been featured in numerous shows throughout the United States and Europe. Klaudeen's classes fill fast as she has a vast following where she teaches many of the tricks and techniques, she has picked up during her many years of making and judging quilts. Learn more about Klaudeen at: www.AmericanQuilters.com/authors

