Nancy McNally, Accuquilt – Longarm Quilting Instructor, Goodlettsville, TN

Over 20 years ago, Nancy was introduced to quilting, quite by accident. She was attending a “back to school” picnic with several of the other moms, when these moms pulled several “show and tell” items from their bags and began discussing them. Nancy marveled at the concept of taking perfectly good pieces of fabric, cutting them up, and then sewing them back together into these wonderful “works of art”. She was hooked.

Fast forward 20 years. Nancy now is not only making quilts; she is designing them. You can find her work in: Love of Quilting, Scrap Quilts, Quilter’s World, Quilty, Quiltmaker, Quiltmaker’s 100 Blocks, Quiltmaker’s Quilts from 100 Blocks. She has contributed to numerous books with Annie’s Publishing company along with 3 videos (#4 coming soon) with Annie’s also. Nancy has also appeared on the PBS TV show “Quilting Arts” series 1700 episodes 1705 & 1709 featuring her Whimsical Applique and her Wholecloth Collage Quilting. She has taught at national shows, symposiums, guilds, quilt shops and has an online channel with YouTube. accomplishquilting.com
