

Kimberly Einmo, Featured Instructor, Lomita, CA

Kimberly Einmo is the National Spokesperson for Janome-America. She is an author, award-winning quilter, fabric designer, international instructor, quilt judge, and CRAFTSY class host. She has written six best-selling books published by the American Quilter's Society, created a signature line of unique, specialty quilting rulers, and she writes a column called Stray Threads, in every issue of American Quilter Magazine. Kimberly is proud to be a featured artist for the Electric Quilt Company where she has developed three EQ companion software products. Her fabric collection, Solid-ish, is a basics best-seller for Timeless Treasures Fabrics and she enjoys leading quilting tour groups to exotic locales around the globe.

A proud military wife and mother of two college-age sons, Kimberly and her husband, Kent, live in Southern California with their beloved rescue cats and one pampered pooch where she enjoys creating in her sunny South Bay area studio. As a respected and prominent leader in the quilting industry, Kimberly enjoys meeting quilters, crafters and sewing enthusiasts from all walks of life across the US and around the world!
