Sara Key, Vendor Instructor, Dizzy Diva's Fabric Shop, Knoxville, TN

Sara grew up in middle Tennessee and has lived in Knoxville for the last 58 years. She has a Vocational Home Economics degree and has had a lifelong love for sewing. She worked as an agent for the University of Tennessee Extension service, and retired from Knox County Schools. She has taught quilting in the adult education program with Knox County Schools for several years as well as classes for local quilt guilds, and quilt shops in the Knoxville area, and classes for shops and homemaking groups throughout middle Tennessee. She now teaches at Dizzy Diva Quilt Shop in Knoxville. She was in charge of quilts for this year's Tennessee Valley Fair.

Sara has taken classes from various nationally known quilt teachers such as: Eleanor Burns, Alex Anderson, Bethany Reynolds, Carol Doak, Karen Combs, Joan Shay and Kaye Woods to name a few. She has also designed several patterns for special projects. She has taught classes for three of the past A Mountain Quiltfest events. Sara enjoys the art of quilting and teaching others to love the fun of making something unique for them or for someone special. She enjoys seeing the smile on the faces of her students when they have finished their projects. dizzydivas.com.
