

Rebecca Lidstrom is the founder and creative force behind Studio R Quilts. She is an enthusiastic quilter, designer, and instructor. Rebecca made her first quilt in 2004 and immediately fell in love with all things quilting.

A simple design aesthetic combined with color, texture, and traditional quilt blocks is what defines Rebecca's patterns. She takes the intimidation factor out of the quilt making process and believes regardless of skill level, anyone can make a quilt.

Helping others discover and enjoy quilting is a passion for Rebecca. She is excited to be part of the wonderful quilting community and share her knowledge with others. Rebecca is a member of the Madison Modern Quilt Guild, Mad City Quilt Guild and the Lodi Valley Quilt Guild.

Rebecca is excited to be designing her own line of quilt patterns and sharing them with the quilting community. She creates from her studio in Madison, WI.
