

After several years teaching quilting and owning/operating the quilt shop, Vicki continues her passion for quilting by designing patterns. Her quilting designs are reaching all over the world through national distributorship and on-line sales.

Her patterns can be found in many quilt shops and Vicki and Tom travel to vend at many quilting shows across the country.