Description:

Since we started doing Bus Tours at A Mountain Quiltfest in 2017, we have always focused on the backroads and stayed in the country. This year we are headed for the city, specifically, downtown Knoxville and Historic Gay Street. What will not change is our focus on the history of specific places and people, and especially on the quilts that will be on display at various stops along the way.

Lunch will be at a favorite gathering place downtown in the historic Woodruff Building. You will order off the menu and everyone will pay for their own meal. This Tour will involve some walking, but less getting on and off the bus. The Tour also includes some of Knoxville's murals, statues, and early radio stations and their impact on early Country Music."
