

Connie Stowers

Born and raised in Nashville, Tennessee

I began sewing at age 10. I've been an avid quilter since 1997 or so.

I was a partner in Goodlettsville's Quilter's Attic from 2001-2005

I have taught quilting for at least 25 years.

I love all types of genres of quilting; reproductions, batiks, traditional, modern, and bright colors. I love small piecing and love to challenge myself with more difficult pieces.

I'll be sharing my story, Birth of a Quilter, and at least 20=30 quilts I've made. (I have helpers to show the quilts)
